“If you are a professional in the field of special education, the CEC Convention is a must-attend event. You will not find another conference with the variety of hot topics in the field of special education with such high-quality presenters anywhere. The excitement of so many professionals in one setting is contagious and the networking opportunities with like-minded professionals is invaluable in my work. I always leave the CEC Convention energized, rejuvenated, and armed with a full toolbox that cannot be replicated anywhere.”

At CEC 2021, the focus will be on special educators with a single goal: making a difference for children with exceptionalities. Whatever your role—general or special education teacher, district administrator, principal, teacher educator, teacher in training, or paraprofessional—you can drive educator and student success by attending CEC 2021.

Attending the CEC 2021 Convention & Expo will allow you to:

▶ Keep your fingers on the pulse of trends, hot topics, and emerging practices in special education.
▶ Gain insights from leading special education experts to help make your practice better.
▶ Get great ideas to use in your classroom as you connect with educators practicing in different settings from around the world.
▶ Choose from over 350 sessions across all topics of education related concerns.
▶ Earn up to 23 professional development hours by attending sessions Wednesday – Saturday. If you only have a day to attend, you can earn up to 6 hours.
▶ Enhance your convention experience by visiting the Expo and the Technology Playground. You will experience new technology offered by vendors and can see it in action in the technology playground.
▶ And, so much more!
Design your own experience by checking out sessions in these topic areas at CECConvention.ORG. Session information will be updated in August. Be sure to check back frequently.

JUSTIFICATION LETTER

We’re here to help you get support from your principal or administrator to attend CEC 2021 in Baltimore. You can customize the following draft “justification letter” to make the case for your attendance.

Please visit the CEC 2021 Convention & Expo website for more information.

▶ Emphasize impact. Attending CEC2021 will benefit you as an educator, the students you serve, your colleagues, and ultimately your school. Talk about the new ideas and strategies you will discover that are based on solid research and academia.

▶ Highlight the savings. Your school or district can save money while investing in professional development for individual teachers or entire teams. BEST RATE savings are in effect through July 31, 2020. There are more savings for volunteers.

▶ Stress the connection. Make sure you explain that your attendance will help you meet knowledge requirements of your school or state. You can earn up to 23 PDHs over four days (three days with possible six hours + one day with five hours).

▶ You can direct your own learning and design the program that meets your specific needs—and enrich your colleagues’ knowledge as well.

▶ Highlight the opportunity to learn firsthand from experts delivering the Optional Workshops presentation/materials. They are a great way to enhance your professional development at the convention—please note that additional fees are required. See the following page for a sample Justification Letter you can personalize and use.
Dear ______________,

At the Council for Exception Children Special Education Convention & Expo (CEC2021), educators at all levels will be brought together to enhance their professional skills, knowledge, and careers. I would like to attend this event happening March 3-6, 2021, in Baltimore, to learn best practices and skills to provide a high-quality education for each one of my students.

By attending CEC 2021, I will gain valuable knowledge that I will be able to implement as soon as I get back to my classroom. I'll also be able to select sessions that best inform and support my work while making connections with and learning from the experiences of other educators throughout the convention.

CEC 2021 Convention & Expo provides opportunities for me to:

► Attend sessions focused on the critical knowledge and skills that I need to help my students succeed inside and outside of the classroom.
► Connect with other special educators with whom I can exchange ideas, skills, resources, and practices.
► Earn up to 23 hours of professional development credit.

To meet my professional development goals, I am seeking approval for the registration fees, travel and lodging expenses, and food expenses during the convention. The detailed cost breakdown is listed below.

Convention Registration:
Travel:
Lodging:
Food:
Total estimated convention cost of:

My participation in the convention will complement our school's objective of continual professional development and I plan to return with resources to share what I've learned with our teachers.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,
The Early Bird Saves!

Register early for the biggest savings! The Best Rate offer is a great value, especially for CEC members: four days of training as low as $99 a day! There are other money-saving options including volunteering—you can serve as a volunteer and get an even deeper discount (save up to 40%) on registration. Volunteer signup is currently available to individuals in Maryland as the host state. [On September 1, the signup site will open for everyone who would like to volunteer and save.]

Visit CEC 2021 website for more information on registration options.
